Driving and riding parties to Healing Brings, Rubino Cascades, Warm Springs, Fiag Rock, Fassifern Farm and the many picturesque incountain roads are much enjoyed. A party of Philadelphians, including Mrs. F. E. Bond, Miss E. C. Tyson, Mr. George Mason Chichester and Mr. E. H. Butler, went for a moonlight ide to the Warm. At the start Mr. Butler created much merriment among a group of friends on the "Homestead" porch by bidding them an impressive farewell. Whether he felt the fascination of the night would carry him far or was uncertain as to his lively mount was a matter of laughing conjecture. A very imart stag dinner was given by Mr. S. Barton French, at his villa, "Barton Lodge," to Admiral Dewey, Admiral W. G. Buchler, Philadelphia; Senator J. B. Foraker, of Cincinnatt; General Wallace F. Randolph, of Washington, and Mr. George T. M. Gibson, of Baltimore.

Miss Lea, of Philadelphia, entertained her friends with a delightful musical at the Golf Club house, Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ida Morades Calvo, of Havanna; Admiral and Mrs. W. G. Bucher, Mr. and Mrs. George Mason Chichester, of Philadelphia, and Miss Keys, of Cincinnati.

Among the recent arrivals are Mrs. H. Morris Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McBurney and Mr. Day McBurney, of Chicago; Mrs. H. After an extensive auto trip through the Berkshires, Mrs. M. E. Ingalis, Miss Gladys Ingalis and Mr. Fay Ingalis have arrived at The Hot. It is a matter of general rejoicing that the Ingalis cottage is again open. Noted for its house-parties and hospitality, it will be even gayer this season, as last winter was the coming out of Miss Gladys Ingalis. Last Sunday evening's concert in the lobby of "The Homestend" was largely attended by guests and cottakers. A brilliant piece, full of tender melody and sudden bursts of patriolism, was Statio's "Quanto to T'Amo." dedicated to Admiral Dewey. It was skilfully alayed and warmly applauded. The admiral shows in every characteristic and every expression of 'his gental,' but able and well trained countenance that it was not the hour that made the man, but the man who made the hour by his remarkable management of the Asiatic squadron during its vital stroke in the Spanish war. His keen interest in the Philippines has not abute!, It is much the child of his making, and he, knowing it thoroughly, predicts for it rapid progress and a bright future. The admiral is a brilliant conversationalist, and puts vividly before us Manila as he first knew it—as he expresses it—" a quaint, pleturesque, rockwalled town like-old Spain one hundred and fifty years ago." Think of Manila to-day with electric cars!

Apropos of this, a reliable New York banker reports that the stock of "The Manila Electric Railway" first ten dollars a shere, is now selling for fifty. Good news for Americans who have investments there.

lars a shero, is now selling for fifty. Good news for Americans who have investments there.

Mrs. Dewey, it will be remembered, is the daughter of Washington McLane, who during the Civil war was editor of The Cincinnati Inquirer. His warm and open, iv expressed sympathy for the South at that time brought upon bim the enemity of the Northern mob element, which caused him many queer experiences—for instance, the entire family often had to sleep in the cellar to avoid the shower of stones thrown by the mob. Mrs. Dewey is an honorary member of "The Daughters of the Confederacy." and Admiral Dewey says he would desire no greater epitaph than what he had by his service to his country helped to bring together the North and South fin a common sympathy which made one brotherhood.

Among the late arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Bryan, Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. C. M. Taintor, New York; Mrs. Fred. B. Scott, Miss Scott and Governor Montague, of Richmond.

A striking career was that of the late Charles Hackley, lumberman and philanthropist, of Muskegon, Mich. Hackley went to Muskegon when a mere boy, in 1856, with only $7 in his pocket, having worked his passage across Lake Michigan on a schooner. He amassed a great fortune, his wealth at his death being estimated at $15,000,000, while his benefactions to Muskegon alone amounted to more than $1,000,000. Although he is raid to have contributed to every church in the city, he never attended any, and never witnessed a performance in a theatre.

THE POOR HOUSE IN LUNENBURG COUNTY

A Nearly Self-Supporting Institution of Great Age.

(Special to The Tim s-Dispatch.) MEHERRIN, VA., July 22.-Almost in the center of the county in a very secluded section, stands the County Poor House, which is shown in the accompanying photograph, where the few that are unable to care for themselves are taken into this home and cared for by County

Into this home and cared for by County Superinendent L. P. Winn.

This is quite an interesting old place, since the house in front of the view was built in old colonial times and is of this style. This building is occupied by Superintendent Winn, while the one to the right and a little in the rear is used for the white liminates, and the one to the left is used for the colored. While there are lots of people within the borders of the "Old Free State," who are in Moderate-circumstanger, yet this institution is rarely over crowden, and there are only from six to twelve people who actually make this their home, and the expense of keeping these is very light, since enough produce is raised on the farm to very near balance up the count for merchandise, used on these inmates.

count for merchandise, used on these insmates.

There is no doubt but that this is one of the oldest buildings in the county, as the main buildings in the county, as the main building was erected over one hundred years ago. Mr. L. P. Winn has managed the affairs of this institution for about twenty-sx years with credit to the county, and annually gives a banquet to the entire board of supervisors, who look forward to this as the years roll by with great pleasure.

The expense outside of this, such as allowing those unable to work a revenue from the county, is comparatively small. Considering the number of inhabitants in the county and those only
